

FACE TOMORROW

LIVE 03/02/05 DVD

"There's no way to describe the feelings you have during a show. The joy of interaction with the crowd. The relief in letting go. It shivers down our spines when something just feels so right..."

After having played hundreds of shows over the last years, FACE TOMORROW can undoubtedly be called one of Holland's most successful alternative bands. Their debut album 'For Who You Are' was a perfect mixture of emotion, intensity, passion, power and melody. The record got raving reviews, and the single 'Worth the Wait' got airplay all over Europe. Face Tomorrow went on to play almost all major festivals and stages all over Europe, building up an impressive reputation for their intense and electrifying live shows.

In 2004 FACE TOMORROW released a new album entitled 'The Closer You Get' and a new single and music video for the song 'Sign Up'. Although the expectations had ran high, FACE TOMORROW really surpassed themselves. Exhibiting a coherency, intensity and emotional depth that is at times breathtaking, 'The Closer You Get' was a spherical and honest monument of extremes, hooks, melodies and rock. On February 3rd 2005 FACE TOMORROW played the Nighttown theatre in their hometown of Rotterdam, the Netherlands. It was a thrilling show packed with adrenaline, intensity and pure emotion. This deluxe packaged DVD captures that night and gives you an insight in the underground sensation FACE TOMORROW has become.
